

Joe Wilkinson

Joe Wilkinson is a Senior lecturer and Clinical Coordinator, at the University of Salford, Directorate of Prosthetics, Orthotics and Podiatry. In addition to teaching duties relating to prosthetic and orthotic science Joe is responsible for establish and administering a network of training facilities which provide clinical training for students undertaking the fourth year of the BSc (Hons) Prosthetics and Orthotic programme.

Joe also acts to fill the role of International Officer for the Europe and is actively involved in assisting and collaborating with a small number of European and International based P&O educational facilities.